

Dear Friends,

I extend my warmest greetings to you, and I am thrilled to introduce you to a remarkable addition to our community – St Mary's Education Centre (SMEC).

Situated in London, SMEC goes beyond being just a place of learning; it serves as an example of hope and opportunity. We open our doors to students in primary and high school, offering an unequivocal welcome to all, irrespective of faith or background. Our fundamental belief is in the transformative power of education.

What sets SMEC apart is our unwavering commitment to a comprehensive educational approach. We understand that each student possesses unique talents and needs, and we pledge to provide the special attention that other institutions might overlook. SMEC's esteemed directors and dedicated teachers, the driving force behind our centre, are deeply committed to nurturing not only academic excellence but also character and creativity.

I want to express my heartfelt gratitude to our exceptional directors and our tireless teachers who have invested their time and expertise in making SMEC a reality. Your dedication forms the bedrock upon which our successes are built.

To our vibrant community, I extend my sincere thanks. Your steadfast support, trust, and belief in SMEC's mission are invaluable. It is your encouragement that fuels our aspirations, enabling us to contribute to a more equitable society.

As we embark on this incredible journey, I invite each and every one of you to be an integral part of SMEC's growth. Your involvement, insights, and support are the driving forces behind our collective vision of fostering a brighter future for our children and our community as a whole.

Together, we will celebrate the vital importance of education and work tirelessly to provide our students with the tools they need to succeed. We eagerly anticipate sharing our progress with you and showcasing the positive impact SMEC will have on our community.

In conclusion, please accept my warmest regards and my deep appreciation for your ongoing support.

With heartfelt gratitude,

✠ Mar Awraham Youkhanis
Bishop and Charity Chairman

